

Notice of Position

The following position is available in Vigo County, Indiana:

Full-time Registered Nurse (Monday-Friday)

Responsibilities of position:

Performs generalist public health nursing responsibilities including, but not limited to:

- Physical, social, emotional, environmental assessments of clients in clinics, home and other field settings
- Childhood and adult immunizations
- Blood testing for lead
- Testing, treatment and follow-up of tuberculosis
- Epidemiological investigation and follow-up of all communicable diseases
- Newborn screening follow-up
- Client referrals to appropriate agencies as needed
- Communicable disease reporting to Indiana State Department of Health
- Resource for medical personnel and public on communicable disease questions/issues
- Health promotion activities
- Participation in workshops, conferences, meetings as needed

Requirements of position:

- Current license to practice registered nursing in Indiana
- Associate's degree/diploma in nursing required; bachelor's degree preferred
- Prior experience in medical-surgical nursing; additional experience in public health nursing preferred
- Valid drivers license
- Cultural sensitivity
- Knowledgeable in Microsoft Access and Word programs
- Ability to exert physical effort in moderate work involving routine stooping, holding children, kneeling, crouching, lifting and reaching; tasks require visual perception and discrimination.

Worksite:

Communicable Disease & Well Child Clinics, other field work as needed

Applicants can send a resume to the attention of Human Resources or may apply in person at:

Vigo County Annex

Attn: Human Resources

650 S. 1st St.

Terre Haute, Indiana 47807

Date of Posting: 10/21/2009